

Seminar Questionnaire

Please answer these questions so that we can better serve you and your audience. It is shared only with the speaker(s) and internal scheduling team, we respect your privacy.

What type of meeting are you hosting?

What is your greatest expectation for the participants?

What is the one thing you do not want to see happen with this program?

What would have to happen for you to feel that this program was a great investment of time and money for you and the participants?

What could be standing in the way of you having the program you just described?

Who have you hired in the past that met or exceeded your expectations as a speaker?

Do you have a date in mind? Is it flexible?

Please give us a contact person and best time to call so that we may schedule a call and discuss program opportunities.